

The 9 Models of the World

We see things not as they are BUT AS WE ARE because each of us is looking out from within our own model of the world. Our model of the world influences what we pay attention to, how we interpret and react to events, the meaning we assign to them, and much of what we think, feel, do, and say.

The ENNEAGRAM can provide you with a window into your personal model of the world and help you develop the self-awareness that's essential for creating positive and sustained change.

This one-day workshop will cover:

- Stances (Aggressive, Withdrawing, and Compliant)
- Centers of Intelligence (Doing, Thinking, and Feeling)
- Triads (2/5/8, 1/4/7, and 3/6/9)
- Coping Styles (Competency, Positive Outlook, and Reactive)
- Wings
- Levels of Development
- Stress and Security Points

You will be able to:

- Understand yourself better by understanding all 9 types.
- Find out how you get in your own way.
- Learn how to communicate with and understand other people better.
- Identify what you can change—and what you can't.
